

Advent: HOPE

Jeremiah 33:1-18 (NLT)

<sup>1</sup> While Jeremiah was still confined in the courtyard of the guard, the Lord gave him this second message: <sup>2</sup> “This is what the Lord says—the Lord who made the earth, who formed and established it, whose name is the Lord: <sup>3</sup> Ask me and I will tell you remarkable secrets you do not know about things to come. <sup>4</sup> For this is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: You have torn down the houses of this city and even the king’s palace to get materials to strengthen the walls against the siege ramps and swords of the enemy. <sup>5</sup> You expect to fight the Babylonians, but the men of this city are already as good as dead, for I have determined to destroy them in my terrible anger. I have abandoned them because of all their wickedness. <sup>6</sup> “Nevertheless, the time will come when I will heal Jerusalem’s wounds and give it prosperity and true peace. <sup>7</sup> I will restore the fortunes of Judah and Israel and rebuild their towns. <sup>8</sup> I will cleanse them of their sins against me and forgive all their sins of rebellion. <sup>9</sup> Then this city will bring me joy, glory, and honor before all the nations of the earth! The people of the world will see all the good I do for my people, and they will tremble with awe at the peace and prosperity I provide for them. <sup>10</sup> “This is what the Lord says: You have said, ‘This is a desolate land where people and animals have all disappeared.’ Yet in the empty streets of Jerusalem and Judah’s other towns, there will be heard once more <sup>11</sup> the sounds of joy and laughter. The joyful voices of bridegrooms and brides will be heard again, along with the joyous songs of people bringing thanksgiving offerings to the Lord. They will sing, ‘Give thanks to the Lord of Heaven’s Armies, for the Lord is good. His faithful love endures forever!’ For I will restore the prosperity of this land to what it was in the past, says the Lord. <sup>12</sup> “This is what the Lord of Heaven’s Armies says: This land—though it is now desolate and has no people and animals—will once more have pastures where shepherds can lead their flocks. <sup>13</sup> Once again shepherds will count their flocks in the towns of the hill country, the foothills of Judah, the Negev, the land of Benjamin, the vicinity of Jerusalem, and all the towns of Judah. I, the Lord, have spoken! <sup>14</sup> “The day will come, says the Lord, when I will do for Israel and Judah all the good things I have promised them. <sup>15</sup> “In those days and at that time I will raise up a righteous descendant from King David’s line. He will do what is just and right throughout the land. <sup>16</sup> In that day Judah will be saved, and Jerusalem will live in safety. And this will be its name: ‘The Lord Is Our Righteousness.’ <sup>17</sup> For this is what the Lord says: David will have a descendant sitting on the throne of Israel forever. <sup>18</sup> And there will always be Levitical priests to offer burnt offerings and grain offerings and sacrifices to me.”

Hebrews 11:1

“Faith shows the reality of what we hope for; it is the evidence of things we cannot see.”

Hope is cultivated in the Presence of God.

Luke 1:26–37 NLT

In the sixth month of Elizabeth’s pregnancy, God sent the angel Gabriel to Nazareth, a village in Galilee, to a virgin named Mary. She was engaged to be married to a man named Joseph, a descendant of King David. Gabriel appeared to her and said, “Greetings, favored woman! The Lord is with you!”

Confused and disturbed, Mary tried to think what the angel could mean. “Don’t be afraid, Mary,” the angel told her, “for you have found favor with God! You will conceive and give birth to a son, and you will name him Jesus. He will be very great and will be called the Son of the Most High. The Lord God will give him the throne of his ancestor David. And he will reign over Israel forever; his Kingdom will never end!”

Mary asked the angel, “But how can this happen? I am a virgin.”

The angel replied, “The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. So the baby to be born will be holy, and he will be called the Son of God. What’s more, your relative Elizabeth has become pregnant in her old age! People used to say she was barren, but she has conceived a son and is now in her sixth month. For the word of God will never fail.”

Jeremiah 31:12–13

“They will come home and sing songs of joy on the heights of Jerusalem. They will be radiant because of the Lord’s good gifts— the abundant crops of grain, new wine, and olive oil, and the healthy flocks and herds. Their life will be like a watered garden, and all their sorrows will be gone. The young women will dance for joy, and the men—old and young—will join in the celebration. I will turn their mourning into joy. I will comfort them and exchange their sorrow for rejoicing.”

Revelation 22:3–5 NLT

No longer will there be a curse upon anything. For the throne of God and of the Lamb will be there, and his servants will worship him. And they will see his face, and his name will be written on their foreheads. And there will be no night there—no need for lamps or sun—for the Lord God will shine on them. And they will reign forever and ever.

PRACTICING THE WAY

As disciples of Jesus, we know our allegiance to Him as King is expressed in our daily practice. We are not pursuing perfection but want to practice our faith each day. These practices will point you toward spiritual formation as an apprentice (disciple) to Jesus.
